To all members of the
Mouvement Ecologique

Luxembourg, March 7th, 2024

Dear Member,

You are warmly invited to the 2024 congress

of the Mouvement Ecologique
featuring – alongside the statutory part
- an exchange with the Minister of the Environment,
Serge Wilmes

Thursday, March 21st, 2024 at 6.15 PM
at the Oekozenner Pafendall - 6, rue Vauban, Luxembourg

It would be very important and appreciated if you could attend the congress, even if you are not otherwise active in the Mouvement Ecologique. Your presence at the congress demonstrates your solidarity and support for the movement, showing the activists that their commitment is valued. Of course, you can also provide positive or critical feedback. Especially in these times, it is important to continue to encourage each other and to stand together!

It will certainly be interesting to "test" the new Minister of the Environment. Afterwards, we want to round off the evening together over a drink and a walking dinner., where we can have a talk about today's challenges in a more relaxed setting. Please be sure to register by March 19th at the latest: meco@oeko.lu.

The agenda for the 2024 congress is as follows:

6.00 PM: Welcome and introduction

6.00 PM: Greetings and speech by president Blanche Weber

6.30 PM: Review of our activities for the year 2023, with a glimpse into the future, prepared with visuals and a brief analysis of achievements:

- Mouvement Ecologique and move.
- Oekozer Pafendall
- Oekofonds Foundation,
- Klima-Bündnis Lëtzebuerg

Comments / feedback from members are welcome. Feel free to share them with us in advance at meco@oeko.lu.

6.50 PM: Financial Report (review of 2023 and budget for 2024) by the treasurer and the auditors, followed by their discharge

7.00 PM: Discharge of the Board of Directors, election of new members of the Board of Directors and auditors

Open discussion

7.30 PM The priorities of the Minister for Environment, Climate, and Biodiversity, S. Wilmes

Minister S. Wilmes will address the following topics, among others:

- What specific results and measures does the Minister aim to achieve by the end of the legislative period for his work?
 - What are the specific priorities and measures of the Ministry of the Environment in the areas of biodiversity and climate protection?
 - What does the new government specifically understand by the term "pragmatic environmental policy"? Does this also affect procedures and/or contents ?
- How does the Minister of the Environment view his role regarding the topics of housing, agriculture, and economic policy: "Temporary Nature", preservation of green spaces in urban areas, reform of agricultural laws, promotion of organic farming, reduction of pesticides, criteria for the approval of new businesses, etc.?

The Minister will address these proposals in the first part. Afterwards, there will be time for an exchange with the audience.

Conclusion with a drink and a walking dinner.

Due to the dinner, it would be appreciated if you could adjust your schedule accordingly: meco@oeko.lu or by phone: 439030-1

Getting to the congress by foot / by bus / by train

On foot: from the upper town with the panoramic lift (entrance via the “Pescatore” parc), then approx. 4 min. to the Oekozenner; or on foot from the “Fëschmaart” to Pfaffenthal (approx. 10 min.).

By bus: Take line 23 to the “Théiwesbuer” or “Vauban” stop. Alternative: take a bus line to the Fondation Pescatore and then the panoramic lift to Pfaffenthal. Information on bus connections on www.mobiliteit.lu.

By train: from the north or from Luxembourg main station to Pfaffenthal-Kirchberg station, then approx. 10 min. on foot to the Oekozenner.

By bike: from the upper town, among other things, take the panorama lift to Pfaffenthal. Spacious bicycle shelter directly at the Oekozenner.

By car: It is best to use the “Glacis” car park, then walk to the panoramic lift, which will take you comfortably to the Pfaffenthal. There are only limited parking spaces available in the vicinity of the Oekozenner.
